

Nottingham Lakeside Arts– Location & Directions

University Park, Nottingham, NG7 2RD. Box Office: 0115 846 7777

SAT NAV: Please do not try to find us by postcode, as this will only take you to University Park, not to Lakeside directly. When entering our address into a Sat Nav, please enter EAST DRIVE, NOTTINGHAM.

PLEASE NOTE: Tram works are now complete; however access to the University Park Campus and Nottingham Lakeside Arts has been slightly restricted. You can only turn left into the South Entrance when approaching towards the city. If approaching from the city please use the East or North Entrance and follow the signage through the campus. It may be necessary to use the West or North Entrance at times. For the latest information, please visit the University's website or call our box office prior to your arrival.

How to get here

DIRECTIONS FROM M1 NORTH

To find us take Junction 26 off M1 and follow signs towards Nottingham City Centre. You will come to a major ring road junction, turn right and follow A6514 (there will be signs towards QMC and the University) heading towards the A52 Derby/Grantham. Ignore the A52 slip road to Derby, keep going on the A52 through an underpass immediately after which take left lane and leave A52 on slip road leading to roundabout. Take right turn at roundabout towards Beeston. You should now be on the A6005 University Boulevard. Get into the right lane and at first set of traffic lights turn right into University Park.

On entering University Park you'll see the Djanogly Art Gallery immediately on your right, and then the D H Lawrence Pavilion (large white building with green roof) which houses the Djanogly Theatre next to the lake on your left. Take the second left turn into the free public car park. If it's full please turn right where is a a range of car parking off to the right and left All of which is available to visitors in the evening.

DIRECTIONS FROM M1 SOUTH

Leave M1 at Junction 25 and follow Nottingham City Centre signs on A52. At the third roundabout get into the right lane and turn right into the A6404 Woodside Road.

You will pass the West Entrance to the University, but continue in the left lane along University Boulevard A6005 turning left at the traffic lights into University Park.

On entering University Park you will immediately see the Djanogly Art Gallery on your right and then the D H Lawrence Pavilion (large white building with green roof) which houses the Djanogly Theatre next to the lake on your left. Take the second left turn into the Lakeside car park. If it's full please take a right turn instead into Science Road. There is parking to the right and left of this road which is available to visitors in the evening.
